No Medical Advice

Neither Acer nor this website offer or provide medical advice and website users are urged to consult their health care providers with any medical, drug, or health-related questions.

Please do not ask Acer for—or rely on—anything that we communicate as being medical advice. Although Acer's website may contain articles or information on medical topics, we make no warranty whatsoever that any of the articles are accurate. Even if a statement we make about medicine is accurate, it may not apply to you, or to your loved one's symptoms.

The website and the materials are intended for educational purposes only. Persons requiring diagnosis or treatment, or who have specific questions related to their condition or care, are urged to contact their health care provider. In an effort to assist patients in identifying medical resources, we have contracted with certain health care institutions that consider themselves to have expertise in the research, diagnosis and treatment of particular diseases or health conditions. These third parties may be mentioned on this website and this website may provide a link to those third-party websites.

The medical information contained on this website or those sites we link to is, at best, general information only, and does not constitute and cannot substitute for the advice of a medical professional (a qualified doctor/physician, nurse, or other healthcare provider). We are not providing and specifically disclaim any attempt to characterize any information we provide as medical advice. Acer specifically disclaims any responsibility for the results or consequences of any attempt to use or adopt any of the information presented in our materials. You should not interpret anything in our website as an attempt to offer or render a medical advice or opinion or otherwise engage in the practice of medicine.

Acer makes no warranties or representations, and expressly disclaims any responsibility for, the information or treatment that you may receive from any listed health care provider.

You should never disregard or delay seeking medical advice because of something that you have seen or heard on Acer websites and mobile applications. Please consult with your doctor, or other qualified healthcare professional, before using any product discussed on the Acer websites and mobile applications. With respect to prescription drugs and other medications and therapies, the doctor prescribing such drug is advised to check the product package insert to verify conditions of use and identify any changes in dosage schedule or contraindications, particularly if the agent to be administered is new, infrequently used or has a narrow therapeutic range.

The contents of the website, such as text, graphics, images, information obtained from our medical partners, sponsors, advertisers, licensors, and other material are for informational purposes only. The content is not intended to be a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.

By providing these links, we are not endorsing, adopting or agreeing with any of the content of the linked sites or the products or services of that third party. We do not review, control, or make any representations regarding the content or accuracy of materials on third party websites or the products or services of third parties.
